3. ECON 1011 counts toward an economics major only in the Business Economics and Applied Economic Analysis emphases and does not count toward the minor.
4. ECON 1031 does not count toward the economics major or minor.
5. ECON 1041 and ECON 1051 are minimum prerequisites for all ECON courses.
6. It is recommended that ECON 2122 and ECON 2112 be taken before other advanced courses in economics.
7. Not more than one emphasis may be declared in economics.

The Economics Department may impose additional admission requirements for students wishing to declare a minor or a second CBA major. Eligibility to declare a minor or a second CBA major is based on having a 2.5 GPA and space availability. Students may obtain a copy of these requirements from UNIBusiness Advising (CBB 5) in the College of Business Administration.

NOTE:

- Students planning on attending graduate school in economics should see Dr. Bryce Kanago, CBB 206, as soon as possible. They should also seriously consider the Quantitative Techniques Emphasis.
- Students planning on attending law school should see Dr. Lisa Jepsen, CBB 208, early in their sophomore year.
- Students who will be entering the job market immediately after graduation should see Dr. Shahina Amin, CBB 210, during their junior year.
